WINTER IN THE ADIRONDACKS

Learn to Love Winter!

The Adirondacks offer unique opportunities for first-timers looking to dip their toes into winter.

For many, time spent outdoors is time well spent. Now, more than ever, we are craving outdoor spaces, fresh air, and the opportunity to reconnect with nature. That said, if it's your first time skiing or climbing a mountain in the snow, there are certain places to go and things to do to prepare. No one is an expert right away! If you're new, don't sweat it - we've got a variety of outfitters who can help you prepare, attractions with special "learn to" activities, and locations to help you ease into a new endeavor! Here's to making new memories in the Adirondacks in 2021!

We know that it is not simple to make the decision to travel during this time and we are here to help connect you with the information you need to know so you make informed travel decisions. When the time is right for you to travel comfortably, we look forward to welcoming you to the six million acres of awesomeness the Adirondacks has to offer. AdirondacksUSA.com/travel-updates

High Peaks Cyclery - 2733 Main Street, Lake Placid

High Peaks Mountain Guides and the High Peaks Cyclery store was established by husband and wife team, Karen and Brian Delaney. Since then, they have helped thousands of people experience the awe-inspiring beauty of the Adirondack Forest Preserve. Their team of guides is happy to cater to any adventure you dream of. Their mission is to provide exceptional service, education, and experiences for our clients while promoting stewardship of the incredible wilderness where we live, work, and play. The store sells just about anything you could need for any adventure.

Dewey Mountain - 238 George H. LaPan Memorial Highway, Saranac Lake

Dewey Mountain is less of a mountain and more of an adventure hub. This is a great place for snowshoers and Nordic skiers of all abilities, and there are on-site rentals of snowshoe and ski equipment. Stick to the flatter, groomed trails or head up the mountain for a more uncultivated trail experience.
