SPRING/SUMMER IN THE ADIRONDACKS

What's new for 2021?

Every season is special in the Adirondacks, but the landscape truly comes alive in spring and summer. Landscapes once covered in snow and ice transform into a sea of green. From outdoor sports like mountain biking to sitting by a fire roasting a marshmallow to simply take a scenic drive, the opportunities to experience spring and summer in the Adirondacks are limitless. With serene lakes and ponds and lush mountainsides as your backdrop, an Adirondack road trip will get you out to explore quaint communities, unique amenities, and the winding scenic roadways that tie it all together. Best of all: there are new and exciting experiences debuting this year that will surely help you make memories to last a lifetime.

We know that it is not simple to make the decision to travel during this time and we are here to help connect you with the information you need to know so you make informed travel decisions. When the time is right for you to travel comfortably, we look forward to welcoming you to the six million acres of awesomeness the Adirondacks has to offer. AdirondacksUSA.com/travel-updates
